THE BOEING COMPANY'S NOTICE REGARDING MOTION TO SET A BRIEFING
SCHEDULE FOR PLAINTIFFS' OCTOBER 30, 2020 MOTION TO COMPEL

Defendant The Boeing Company hereby provides notice that it intends to file a motion requesting a briefing schedule regarding the Plaintiffs' October 30, 2020 motion to compel (Dkt. 203). Boeing will request a briefing schedule that allows adequate time for the National Transportation Safety Board ("NTSB") to consider Plaintiffs' motion to compel and for the NTSB to determine how best to protect its equities.

Boeing had planned to file its motion for a briefing schedule over the weekend, but counsel for Plaintiffs refused to meet and confer over the weekend. This notice is filed in order to make the Court aware of Boeing's intention to file a motion for scheduling order as soon as Plaintiffs' counsel will make themselves available for the required meet and confer which is a condition precedent to filing a motion. The parties are scheduled to meet and confer at 9:00 AM

CT on Monday, November 2, 2020. Once the meet and confer is completed, Boeing will promptly file either an agreed or contested motion to enter a briefing schedule concerning Plaintiffs' motion to compel (Dkt. 203).

Date: November 1, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

McGUIREWOODS LLP
